

Dear Sir or Madam, dear clients,

As a result of the current situation regarding the coronavirus, we have taken preventive measures for everyone's protection and to prevent the further spread of the virus.

Many of our employees are currently working from home. A core team will continue to man our company and is available for you as follows:

- Requests, quotes, orders:
info@burster.de, Tel. +49 7224 645 -0
- Services and calibration services:
service@burster.com, Tel. +49 7224 645 -53
- Exports: export@burster.de, Tel. +49 7224 645 -0

We are there for you as normal via the communication channels listed on our website or via the usual contact details. Nothing will change for you regarding daily communication and we will keep everything running as smoothly as we can.

Our production team is working at a reduced level during this period. For each and every case, we will check the extent to which we can meet your needs immediately from our warehouse. But please bear in mind that there may be longer delivery times in some cases, and that we are currently unable to specify exact delivery dates. Of course we will support you in urgent cases and find a solution. We will let you know immediately, as soon as the situation is back to normal.

We are making every effort to ensure that our business relationship continues to run smoothly and promise you the highest level of flexibility and reliability.

Thank you for your understanding!
