Your burster Team

Dear customers and business partners,

We send you warm greetings from Gernsbach for the new year and our special thanks for your trust.

We appreciate our good and cooperative partnership very much – especially in these challenging times for all of us. We look forward to many more exciting projects and will continue to be on your side as a reliable partner in the new year, supporting you with all our strength and full commitment.

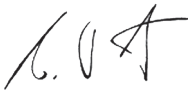

We wish you all the best, happiness, success, satisfaction and above all health, professionally and privately.

Let us continue to working together in good partnership in 2023!

With all the best wishes from Gernsbach

Your team from
